

Jose Grande, PE Senior Project and Municipal Engineer

Education: Drexel University, 1978, BS Civil Engineering

Responsibilities/Experience:

Jose brings years of experience in municipal and private plan reviews and site inspections, expert testimony on behalf of municipalities and citizen groups, comprehensive plans, ordinance development, park and trail plans, open space management and utilization, site remediation and municipal land planning.

Professional Registration:

Licensed Professional Engineer in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania since 1981
Certified as a Minority Business Enterprise in 2008
CCR registered, U.S. Small Business Administration

With over 43 years of experience in Civil Engineering, including municipal engineering, Jose, has provided services, to over a dozen municipalities in the Bucks, Chester, Delaware and Montgomery County regions; services include land development plan/report reviews, various reports to municipal officials, attendance to municipal public meetings, on-site inspections of public improvement projects including pipeline, road improvements, PaDEP, PennDOT and other permit applications, review of Zoning matters, and cost estimating of various civil/site improvements.

Jose joined the Yerkes team in September 2018. A professional with an excellent reputation, Jose had run his own consulting firm for many years. He brings a “client-driven” priority to the Yerkes team.