

Kevin F. Walsh
Building Code Engineer

Education:

Drexel University, 2011, B. S. Architectural Engineering

Responsibilities/Experience:

As Yerkes Associates current Lead Building Codes Engineer, Kevin is responsible for performing both private and municipal plan review services and building inspections in several Municipalities as requested.

He currently serves as the Building Code Official, Property Maintenance Official, and Zoning Officer for Narberth Borough, Montgomery County, PA

Inspections include residential/commercial repairs and alterations, additions and new construction, as well as Zoning & Planning.

Professional Affiliations

City of Philadelphia – Liberty Chapter

International Code Council (ICC)

National Fire Protection Association (NFPA)

Pennsylvania Association of Building Code Officials (PABCO)

Current PA/UCC, ICC, Certifications

- Accessibility Inspector and Plans Examiner, ICC
- Building Inspector, ICC
- Building Plans Examiner, ICC
- Mechanical Inspector, ICC
- Mechanical Plans Examiner, ICC
- Energy Inspector, ICC
- Energy Plans Examiner, ICC
- Residential Building Inspector, ICC
- Building Code Official, PA Dept. of Labor & Industry

Kevin joined the Yerkes team in August 2017. Prior to starting work with Yerkes Associates, he was promoted to Departmental Consultant, for the City of Philadelphia, taking the lead in consulting with developers, design professional and legal teams to successfully maneuver the permitting process for major projects & development. Kevin was appointed to City Implosion/High-Rise Demolition Specialist in the City of Philadelphia, handling all major demolition projects throughout the City, as well as any project incorporating blasting procedures. He was also elected to the Philadelphia Zoning Technical Committee where, in conjunction with the Philadelphia City Planning Commission, Zoning Code technical and substantive changes were drafted and presented to City Council to become adopted into the Code. Kevin possesses the ability to consult and assist contractors, owners, landlords and property managers with the building code, to help before and during the construction process. He is a detail-oriented professional with extensive knowledge in Code analysis Zoning/Planning, development and permitting.