

Nick Cirilli, PE, PLS President & CEO

Education:

Penn State Univ., 1973, B.S. Civil Engineering
Widener Univ., 1979, M.S. Structural Engineering

Responsibilities/Experience:

Nick brings 40 years of diversified experience in directing, managing, and engineering, various structural/site development, institutional, residential, and industrial-type projects.

Prior to founding Cirilli Associates, Inc, he was the Director of Engineering for (Henkels & McCoy, 1985-90), with profit center responsibilities for a full-service, multi-disciplined, 120-person organization, including architectural, mech., elec., civil/struc., corrosion, communications, with branch offices in Auburn, Ma. and Richmond, Va.

Actively practices design engineering including (1) structural engineering of reinforced concrete, wood and steel and, (2) site development engineering of roadway and parking areas, storm water management, site grading, erosion & control, sanitary and storm sewer design and ordinance compliance. Nick is a recognized “expert” in matters pertaining to civil & structural engineering, land development, and engineering management issues.

He was the recipient of the Delaware County Chapter (Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers) 1991 Engineer or the Year award. Also, was the recipient of Nether Providence Township’s Official Recognition Resolution (1991) for contributions to the Township in the areas of storm water management and erosion control.

Nick served as the alternate Township Engineer for Nether Providence Township for over 17 years (1978 - 1995), served on the Nether Providence Environmental Advisory Board for over 14 years (1978 -92), and currently is serving as Aston Township’s Alternate Engineer on various projects (since Jan. 2000).

He has published in the Chester County Assoc., of Realtors, and Press Newspapers of Delaware County, (April, '99), his article entitled “Termite Repairs - Beware of the Sister”, and has published in the Journal of Management in Engineering (ASCE, May/June '97 issue), his article entitled “Bagging our Baggage”.

Nick is Author and Facilitator of “How to Communicate Engineering Ideas” (8) PDH’s for PE’s Continuing Education Program